Acknowledgements

This book is dedicated to Jesus, my Lord, Saviour, our Bridegroom and Head of the Church, to You be all the glory and honour. We eagerly await Your return.

I would like to thank my good friends, advisors, prayer supporters, editors and encouragers, especially Stephen, Roy, Angela, Tony, Hilary, Val, Howard, Jonathan, Heather, Shalle, Ruth, Scott, Sophie and Sam. I also thank the people who have expressed loving disagreement and concern, it has helped sharpen me and refine the book.

“Take heed that no man deceive you.” – Matthew 24:4

“Who rises up for me against the wicked? Who stands up for me against evildoers?” – Psalm 94:16

“For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good. These, then, are the things you should teach. Encourage and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you.” – Titus 2:11-15

“The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.” – Romans 13:12

Endorsements

In more than 25 years of Christian leadership, I have not read a book which sets out the truths behind the headlines in such a fearless and relevant way for the times we now live in. This is a must-read for every Christian. The facts will shake you to the core; they did me, but they are vital for us to know, so that we can effectively pray God's kingdom into a world where hope is fast disappearing.

The title of J.L. Fuller's book, 'Romans 13 and Covid 19 – Knowledge, Warnings and Encouragement for the Church and World' is self-explanatory, and it does exactly what it says on the tin. This is essential reading for every Church leader – from those who are at a loss to understand what is happening in the world and the Church and have no idea how to explain it to their flocks, to those who are well aware of what is going on, but need help and encouragement to share what they know and stand for Truth. No matter how much you already know, this book will tell you something more. It has been extensively and very well researched, and I particularly like the fact that the sources and resources are listed for you to check out for yourself, if you feel so inclined. It is an excellent resource in itself for anyone called to teach and lead a Church through the challenging times we find ourselves living in.

We now live in a world where freedom and liberty has turned to forced masking and lock-down, when medical professionals and pharmaceutical industry insiders are being silenced and censored from exposing the bald-faced lies of the international elite's well-orchestrated global media machine, and when the governments of the world are taking their orders from that same global elite's UN and (so-called) 'World Health Organization'. At the same time, many, if not most of the supposed 'men of God' who occupy the pulpits of Christian Churches have shirked their responsibility to guard their flocks from the wolves and have instead allowed the wolves to dictate their terms of service and close their doors. Speaking directly and authoritatively in response to these issues, Romans 13 and Covid-19 courageously and meticulously presents much-needed light to a very darkened world. I heartily recommend this book as a thoroughly documented 'must-read' for all Christians, both pastors and Church members, especially those who have believed the controlled media's lies about the hyped-up 'pandemic' and the vaccines being pushed – to begin to understand not only the agenda and devices behind the entire UN/WHO Covid-19 deception, but also their own responsibility under Christ to resist government tyranny at any cost in order to restore the Lord Jesus to His rightful place as the sole head of their local churches – "that in all things he might have the pre-eminence" (Colossians 1:18).

Reading this is akin to reserving for yourself and your loved ones the best seats in the lifeboat just before the Titanic hits the iceberg. This book will appeal to two groups of readers. First, those who instinctively sense something has not been right in the last year in government and media. Why were so many leading scientists, medical researchers and frontline workers bullied into silence? Why was a traditionally robust and fearless UK media muzzled? Seekers wanting hard facts to go with their intuition will find the research here. Moreover, the author points not just to the root of the problem but to a crystal-clear solution. One you can apply yourself, in good conscience, without seeking permission of the government and their advisors. Second, it is for Christian leaders who sincerely want to see a genuine revival of passionate, raw, mountain-moving Biblical faith in our nation. The faith which built everything that is good and wonderful about this land. It is not for those who want a lukewarm Church of Laodicea. It is for those seeking a Church of Philadelphia, which delights the real Jesus Christ of the Bible. They will rejoice and be emboldened by the contents. It will give you ammunition to persuade others of the serious times we are living in. Jesus Christ, Creator of the universe, who shed His Blood to pay off the sin mortgage owed by every human, guarantees He will spit out lukewarm Christians. He guarantees to curse anyone who removes one line from the Bible. He gives clear signs of His soon return to the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem to rule the nations, bringing in His Kingdom for eternity. This book brings clarity, focus and urgency. Jesus warned that in the end times there will be seducing evil spirits and doctrines of demons in the Church itself. That there will be those creating counterfeit Jesus Christs within the Church. That there will be at the very end a true Church and a False Christian Church. One will go up the ladder and receive divine protection and blessing. The other will slide down the snake, completely unprotected, into the period Jesus describes as the worst years in the whole of history. For Christians in the West, business as usual is no longer an option.

In an age of spin, fake news, lies, propaganda and manipulation by media and governments alike, it is refreshing to find an author who clearly questions the current given narrative of Covid, along with the concomitant reaction of the Church in general. This is a must-read for all Berean Christians, who would claim to be men and women of Issachar, able to read the signs of the times. The author is not only very well-qualified to deal with many of the questions that pastors and truth-loving, Bible-believing Christians are asking, but has thoroughly researched every angle of this 'Plandemic', all backed up by wide research. Having myself spent hours online watching many teaching videos, reading reports, listening to Frontline Doctors, epidemiologists, prophetic teachers and pastors explain the God-revealed truth about what is happening in line with Biblical prophecy, only to have their evidence removed from the internet as 'fake news', this book was really a God-send as it has compiled, under one cover, the information I have gleaned over the past year. I cannot recommend it more highly for truth seekers!

In this book J.L. Fuller has done a timely and excellent job in investigating and deconstructing the hidden agendas, nefarious intent and identities of the shadowy parties behind the non-existent pandemic and what is one of the greatest crimes ever committed on humanity. The magnitude of the crime is breath-taking in its audacity and scope and this book serves as a timely must-read wake-up call.

'Romans 13 and Covid 19' will both enlighten and shock you in equal measure. It is probably one of the most timely and relevant books published in the advent of Covid, speaking directly into the situation we all find ourselves in – the coronavirus minefield and the world of 'the Global Elite' agenda. Not only a 'now book' but also gives vital information as to what has led us to this point in time and where it's going. Plus, it has something to say to everyone, whether you are a lay person, like me, or the head of the Church. It may even open the eyes of the 'man on the street' who is discerning the times in which he lives. It has practical suggestions on 'what to do next' and even has a section on how we can prepare our hearts for what is on the horizon. I've never read a book that covers such a diverse range of relevant and intertwined subjects, such as what is going on in the world in terms of genetics but also give down to earth advice on what to eat! Make no mistake, this book will open your eyes but also equip you to be the Church of tomorrow in an ever-changing world that may never go back to 'normal' again. The only question I ask is 'are you ready for it?'

If, as Christians believe, the Bible is the living and active Word of God, then we should use it daily to guide how we relate to God and live our lives. We should also use it as a benchmark to assess the current actions of other individuals, influencers, governments and countries in the world. The Bible contains history and prophesy and we need to be aware of Bible prophecies yet to be fulfilled; how might the activities of key influencers in the world be working towards events lining up to allow as yet unfulfilled prophecies to come to fruition? We should assess history, watch events unfold and listen carefully to what we are being told (and perhaps more importantly what we are not told, but can uncover with some research and applying critical thought) in the news and other media, reading our Bibles alongside and interpreting these things accordingly.

In this Biblically grounded thesis, which has been written with God-given conviction, J.L. Fuller identifies some key events that have occurred before and during the 'Covid 19 crisis' and demonstrates how governments have gone beyond their 'Romans 13 remit' in the policies they have effected. J.L. goes on to highlight the ramifications and dangers of these policies and shows how these may be accelerating progress towards what the Bible tells us will be features of the 'end times' in terms of world his- tory. Much of it is uncomfortable reading and J.L. calls Christians especially to exercise careful discernment at these times. The points made are thoroughly researched and evidenced to credible third-party links and primary sources. All readers will benefit from knowing about the impact of current world events, but I would particularly urge all professing Christians to read this book alongside their Bibles to help discern what is truth and seek God for guidance in the light of it.

The Church today finds itself amidst very troublesome times, and this study seeks to raise and resolve many of the questions in respect to this. Whatever your views on prophecy or power, the sections contained in this book on Paul's instructions regarding Christian obedience and freedom and the historical observations and lessons in respect to prior times of difficulty are essential to the very fabric and nature of our faith, and need to be taken to heart in these current circumstances.

Whilst difficult to deal with, it is imperative that we examine the issues the author has ably addressed in this work if we are to face the key challenges of today. This publication, whilst tackling several thorny issues, is a good way to begin and advance that conversation.

– Howard Nowlan, Author, 'Preparing for Heaven on Earth: An Introduction to Creational Christianity'

'Romans 13 and Covid 19' is unique book, written for such a time as this, when things are moving and shaking rapidly in our society. J.L. Fuller has spent much time in research and soul searching to present a book that flies against the culture of fear, confusion, ease and political correctness, often uninformed as to what is really going on behind the scenes world-wide and dictated to by the media. There is a bigger picture we must see;

it has been planned for centuries by the Global Elite and this book condenses it into a wonderful resource. When Government censoring causes the daily disappearance of 'voices of truth' from the internet and social media, we know there's a problem and this book puts the information into our hands.

Martin Luther King said, "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy." J.L.'s deep heart of passion, not only for the Church, but for all people, to know and understand the truth being presented here, is commendable and making a stand comes with a price, not all of us would wish to pay. A 'must read' for everyone who is 'open to hear', Revelation 2:7. An invaluable resource, one I will certainly recommend to family and friends.

– Anon, Israel

*****

J.L. Fuller is a Christian with unflinching honesty and searing intelligence. This isn't a book for the faint-hearted, but it is manna for those who have deep and serious questions about 'what on earth is going on in the world today?'. It's amazing to find such a complex and wide range of subjects brought together in one volume, and ultimately what is so exciting is that it is SO readable!

Foreword

The book you have before you is not a casual, easy read. It's not the kind of book you read to help you sleep at night. Actually, I suspect it may have just the opposite effect. It's a challenging read and its conclusions are painful.

That's not exactly a ringing endorsement. You may be wondering, "why should I bother?" My hope is that you will read it for the same reason you pick up and read a book like 'A Problem from Hell' or 'Gulag Archipelago' or 'Night' or even 'A Theatre in Dachau'. Simply put, it's honest. J.L. Fuller's arguments are important and the message urgent. We have all read heart wrenching accounts of the deeds of previous generations. This is like that, except it is present day; which means there is still something you can do about it. In that sense it is urgent. But it is also important in that it touches on freedoms which once lost are not easily regained.

We are often told that we are living in unprecedented times. I am not inclined to argue. I think they are unprecedented. But I believe the times are unprecedented for a whole different set of reasons than what you may have been led to believe. What is unprecedented is the mass closure of Churches worldwide. What is unprecedented is the almost universal agreement among nations and governments both in terms of messaging and regulation. What is unprecedented is the way that the media in nations around the world have managed to sell the same message – all repeating the same words as if quoting from the same playbook. What is unprecedented and frightening is the willingness of freemen everywhere to so cheaply give up their freedom.

This book won't be popular with many because it takes issue with the prevailing opinion. I suspect it won't be liked for another reason. It isn't comfortable. But for both reasons it is urgently needed.

You may not agree with all its conclusions, but you would be reckless to dismiss it without first prayerfully considering its arguments.

I believe we need this voice of reason very badly. I have been personally staggered by the silent complicity of our Church leaders. Make no mistake, their silence makes them party to the problem. History will not look favourably on them.

I sincerely wish there were many more with courage to speak. But I am profoundly thankful for those like J.L. Fuller whom God has surely raised up for such a time as this ... to sound the alarm.

Reader, with all my heart I believe that alarm needs sounding. I certainly hope that you will read, pray, act and then pray again. My prayer is that you will put this book down, determined that you will not so easily surrender the freedoms which cost your forefathers so much to buy. But I have prayed that the Lord would use this book for something much more than that. Civil liberties are precious, but they have value only insofar as they serve the glory of God. It is my prayer that the Lord may use this book to remind His people that He is King, and that He is worthy!

Author Biography

When the LORD put it on my heart to embark on this writing project, my first and subsequent thoughts were “LORD, I’m not qualified nor experienced to write this thing!” Whilst I was aware that God delights in taking the unqualified but willing and uses them to display His handiwork, it took me longer to realise, mainly highlighted by others, that I do have some experience to bring to the table in the areas that are relevant to Covid and its entourage of new directives. Namely, a portfolio career in the spheres of Medical Research Law and Health Policy, as well as business experience that has given me first-hand knowledge of the strategies of powerful elites. I also had a long spell in the New Age world, both professionally and as my adopted religion.

These fields of my professional interest are very relevant to all-things Covid 19 and beyond (which we’ll look at in detail in the body of the book) and there was a common denominator that I eventually recognised in them all: high-level, subtle and systematic deception, especially when it comes to determining who controls the purse strings and for what purposes. It’s sad to say that I see the same in much of what has taken place in the advent of our so-called ‘pandemic’, on a rather more monumental scale. Let me expand a little on my background ...

After graduating with a Law degree, I spent years managing Medical Research and the ethical and legal aspects of clinical trials. I wrote the Government reports which intimately highlighted to me the huge influence of Big Pharma funding on what actually makes it to full trial and the bias in results and outcome for patients, as well skewed information given to sincere medical professionals. Separately, I also worked on writing the legal policies for a large institution where I saw the systematic legalisation of evil practices, squeeze on free speech and the creeping of government authoritarianism. For two decades, I have worked in natural health and have been delighted to see that so many ‘incurable diseases’ (including viruses) are quite rapidly curable, with the right diet and lifestyle. All of this has enabled me to detect very early on the huge problems, on many levels, with the rushed experimental vaccination rollout that began in 2020.

In my decade of business and marketing consultancy, I worked amongst very powerful businessmen who knew how to manipulate large groups of people to sell them products and ideas, using sophisticated and deceptive techniques, such as mass-hypnotism and Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP). I witnessed the professionalised and highly effective use of fear, scarcity and appealing to people’s greed, pride and desire for comfort to control actions and attitudes, without the target audience’s knowledge or awareness.

As a New Ager, I ascribed to various aspects of humanism, ‘mother earth’ worship, positive Psychology and channelling. I also delved deep into research on the Luciferian New World Order agenda. So, you could say I have a working knowledge of how the devil and his demons can masquerade very convincingly as ‘angels of light’, bringing much spiritual and physical devastation.

Thankfully for me and all glory and praise to my Father in Heaven, the LORD Jesus Christ saved me from all that a good while ago and I have been an avid Bible student and disciple of Christ ever since. But I will never forget those experiences and I recognise the same deception in the ministries of false preachers and apostate Churches, but also sneaking into the true Church, which we need to be more vigilant about swiftly removing.

I have a burning and single-minded devotion to God and echo Fanny Crosby’s sentiments to ‘take the world, but give me Jesus’ and I have suffered and lost a lot as a consequence. I have no personal ambition at this point in my life, I love Him far above all else and I long to see our God glorified in and by His Church, albeit in my weakness, sin and frailty. I love the local Church, God’s people on earth, and I long to see a return to holiness. I long for repentance within the Body of Christ and to walk in truth, radical faith and good conscience, all of which have been dangerously and often subtly eroded in many ways.

The Satanic Babylonian system is all around us and advancing rapidly in the advent of the Covid 19 medical crisis, traversing across both pragmatic scientism and religion and seeking to conflate the two. We need to be a Church who can successfully separate herself and launch a holy counter-attack in the spiritual realms for Christ's Kingdom, binding up the broken hearted, proclaiming the Gospel to those who are in captivity to sin and setting people free, even as the world seeks to imprison us. To do this, we need to be 'men of Issachar' and I believe that I am one of them, owing to my peculiar professional and spiritual background and God's gracious salvation, communion and revelation. So, here's my book on these times.

"And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do" – 1 Chronicles 12:32.

Preface

George Orwell once claimed that he has ‘an ability to face unpleasant facts’. I have this ability too. I’ve seen many ‘unpleasant facts’ in my own life, heart and relationships, like all sinners in need of a Saviour, but also in various work settings and false religion, as I’ve just outlined. Throughout my portfolio career I’ve explored things that people often turn a blind eye to, for various reasons of convenience and sometimes self-preservation.

As an avid researcher, I’ve dedicated by far the most of my time, energy and passion to understanding worldviews and the nature of reality; consequently, experiencing many rabbit holes and causing changes of thought and direction along the way that have helped me to grow in truth and knowledge. This has cost a lot – loss of finances, relationships, status, comfort and more. Having the boldness to ask those probing, socially inappropriate or politically incorrect questions that others often don’t wish to address, doesn’t always win friends and influence people!

My desire to be a truth seeker, no matter what I may find, or what consequences may arise, has led me to seeing the devastating level of deception in all aspects of life, especially the motivating factors behind world events and politics. Oftentimes, the deep, dark subject matter that I’ve found myself delving into began as genuine enquiry into what I thought was a happy, positive subject, but instead I discovered very alarming realities. ‘Health care’ is one of these areas, for example. By God’s grace, I’ve been able to maintain calm resolve and critical thought which has allowed me to keep pressing in to face the facts full-on, with a heart to see my insights inform wise actions – to forewarn others, lament the situation and take it to the LORD in prayer. In tandem with this, I’ve sought to live as a law-abiding (latterly Christian) citizen, in peace with my neighbour and enjoying a ‘normal life’ as far as possible.

As I pen this work, we are knee-high in a world crisis ‘pandemic’, with governmental measures in place that even the most sceptical would say is nonsensical and confusing at best and utterly tyrannical at worst. I’ve seen this coming and perceive it to be the unfolding of a very carefully planned set of events towards a specific agenda. You won’t see it outlined on television or mainstream media and where information about it is disseminated on social media, it is swiftly stamped as ‘fake news’, censored and removed. Isn’t it correct that once you see behind a magician’s trick, you have a revelation that you can’t undo? Once you see the ‘smoke and mirrors’ for what it is, your subjective reality shifts. The fog gives way to clarity of view and true insight. So, I’ll say this: If truth and the present world crisis, the matter at hand, is something you prefer not to address, then this book could be a challenge for you. Ignorance is indeed often bliss in many ways. But this book is written for the believer in Christ who wishes to live in truth and courage (with love and respect), being wise to the enemy’s tactics (but innocent of partaking in the evil itself) and contending for the faith accordingly. Our LORD warns us many times not to be deceived and to worship Him in spirit and truth and to turn away from evil. So, if you are committed to your obedience to Him, at any cost, and wish to be a light in the world and grow in your discernment ... I urge you to read on, read in full and prayerfully consider what’s written here and let it be a factor in your actions.

[SIDE NOTE: If you’re not yet a follower of the Jesus Christ, then before you make a start on this book, please first go to Chapter 14 on ‘Your One and Only True Solution to Overcome this Mess’. Friend, your biggest problem is not this current world crisis and craziness, it’s that you’re not in a right relationship with the Living God and that if you die in your sins, you will face eternal wrath. Jesus is Creator of the heavens and the earth and everything in them. He is God and He also came to earth as a man to pay for your sins (the bad deeds that we all do and the good things we’ve failed to do) on the cross but you need to accept that gift to receive forgiveness. I urge you, today, to get right with Him. Believe that Jesus laid down His life to take the penalty for your sins. Confess them to Him and repent (turn away from them). Turn to King Jesus as Lord of your life.

Read His Word, the Bible and seek out a local fellowship group of believers. This is vitally important!]

Winston Churchill once said this: “In wartime, truth is so precious that she should always be attended by a bodyguard of lies.” He was a Freemason<sup>1</sup> and Druid<sup>2</sup> – a member of organisations shrouded in secrecy and deception, even to its members, until they achieve the higher degrees. So, he would know a lot about truth and lies, especially on a geopolitical level. There is one great truth that Christians hold onto – that Jesus is LORD, creator, sustainer and redeemer of the heavens and the earth and all therein. We know that the devil sets up an untold multitude of lies to try and keep people from recognising this reality.

According to Scripture, we are in wartime now. I believe that there is so much deception going on and lies being told that we need to fervently pray for our eyes to be opened and for the LORD to deliver us. We must ask Him what we, personally, in our own particular setting, gifting and area of responsibility should do for the best, in order to stick closest to our Shepherd and to shepherd others, glorify Him and lead others to a personal relationship with Jesus. The wisdom we’re all looking for needs to come directly from that relationship and the fountain of living water instead of worldly ‘broken cisterns’ (Jeremiah 2:13). John 10:27 states that “my sheep hear my voice”. If you are in a leadership position especially, then I would offer the suggestion that just maybe, the LORD has brought you here for a reason. Maybe the information and wisdom you’re looking for on what to do in this crisis won’t be found from world leaders and governmental bodies but discerned from within the Body of Christ ... I’ll let you decide.

Why I Wrote This Book

My motivations for writing this book are certainly not to rant about conspiratorial matters and ‘fight the powers that be’ merely for the sake of human rights (much as I used to like listening to Public Enemy in the 80s). Rather, my motivations are twofold: First, a concern for right and proper worship of the Living God, in all the ways He instructs us to, in spirit, truth and freedom as His gathered, called out Church – ‘ekklesia’. Second, a concern for effective evangelisation of the lost world and seeking to bring souls to a saving faith in the LORD Jesus Christ.

I found that trying to have one-to-one conversations with many people on these matters was a job left half done at best. So, I took it to God and felt a clear prompt in the Spirit to write about it, confirmed by others. It made sense as I have the prior experience of authoring several major-published books. As I have undertaken this research and writing project, it has not been at the expense of other more ‘regular’ Christian duties and accountabilities, nor speaking to people in person about these things.

Here’s some of the actions I’ve taken:

- In February 2020, I petitioned several Church leaders to keep our Churches open. I explained that the crisis involved much government deception and that we should resist the things that directly imposed on our gathered worship of the Living God. This appeared to be largely unheard.
- I have laboured in prayer and fasting consistently to repent and ask the LORD to have mercy on us and give us the courage and faith to re-open Churches (with wisdom) – to worship and go about Church business unrestricted by governments and fear.
- I have continued to meet, in person, for Church fellowship in some form or other throughout the lockdowns.

- My 1-1 evangelism increased. I have shared the Gospel with many atheists, Muslims, New Agers, family members, friends in person and online, clients, social activists, people I've met whilst out walking and more.
- Joining a group to do open air preaching and evangelism which has continued in city centres locally.
- I have continued to serve in Church – visit and take food to elderly people, look after my vulnerable relatives, participate on various Church rotas and attend prayer and Bible study meetings.
- In the research and writing of this book, I have interviewed many leaders of Churches from differing denominations, locations and underground fellowship groups, Christian organisations and other ministries. I have solicited feedback, critique and suggestions from those who are favourable to my plight, conclusions and suggestions and also from those who are not wholly in agreement and some who are outright hostile. I have taken these things to God in prayer and fasting and amended my writing accordingly. I have also sought out the insights and experiences of people who have been very negatively affected by all things Covid.

I know that many Church leaders are reluctant to listen to 'conspiracy theories', looking to focus on making Jesus known and the task at hand rather than digging into deception or 'wacky nonsense', as many perceive it! Their call is to preach the Word and shepherd the sheep (pastoral), while mine is to bring truth and exposure to deception (watchman or prophetic). However, the body of Christ works best when we all function in our varying gifts, for the edification of all and we are all eventually heading towards the final goal, the return of our Messiah Jesus.

I have written this book with a humble desire for it to be a thorough and clear means to bring the knowledge and rally-call to Christians and leaders that is so desperately needed at this time. I have taken the considered decision to let it be longer than it essentially needs to be, with many full quotations and primary source excerpts. The main reason for this is that both truth and open discussion about all things Covid are being heavily censored and quite possibly eliminated altogether in the near future. I wanted people to have a comprehensive physical resource that they could keep and refer to into the future. I would advise getting several copies in paperback form; not so that I sell more books, but as a matter of wisdom and the sharing of truth with your loved ones. You may not agree with everything in this book and there are certainly aspects that I have posed as musings and considerations, or as my current opinion, rather than unequivocal fact (namely around future events). However, there is more than enough in here to make it an invaluable, in-depth resource for truth on Covid and the Church and wider society's response. I hope and pray it is a helpful blessing to you and your brothers and sisters in Christ. I hope too that the people who read it and are not yet followers of Christ, will become ones.

"Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us." – Nehemiah 4:20 (NKJV)

Romans 13 – The Relevance of All Fourteen Verses

This book ties together three weighty issues that might at first blush seem rather unrelated:

1. The first seven verses of Romans 13, addressing the Christian's subjection and attitude to governing authorities over us.
2. Covid 19 mandates, with the most pressing being the rushed, enforced 'vaccination' programme.
3. The Babylonian landscape around us, as most clearly depicted in Revelation chapters 13, 17 and 18. This encompasses the worldly political, commercial and religious structures in place that are set up against Jesus and His Biblical commands.

We will explore each of these in detail and the connection between the three, in an effort to discern the times, heed Jesus' warnings to us to not be led astray by deceptive people and teachings, and to prepare ourselves for what's ahead. The first seven verses of Romans 13 provide the most obviously relevant and naturally discussed verses in connection to the Church's situation under Covid. However, the latter seven verses are also highly relevant and I tie these in with material throughout the book, to a lesser or greater extent. Namely those things are:

- Fulfilling our obligations to one another by loving our neighbour and not wronging them (Romans 13:8-10).
- Waking up from deception and apathy (Romans 13:11).
- Casting off the works of darkness; turning from evil and putting on the armour of the light of Christ (Romans 13:12).
- Making no provision for the flesh – to neither gratify its desires nor seek to impress others by making a good showing in the flesh in order to avoid persecution. (Romans 13:14, also Galatians 6:12)

Finally, I am a sinner saved by grace and claim to be no more than that. I am not a Church leader or preacher, nor do I hold a theology degree. But I have had the time needed that many Church leaders just didn't seem to have, with all that's happened since Covid. The LORD has set me aside to write this, with the headspace, degree of objectivity, energy, quiet space and prayerfulness to do it. I have a burning heart for evangelism and hope for a prepared Bride and army of the Lord that can discern the deceptive times we're in and avoid deceitful spirits. "Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons" – 1 Timothy 4:1 (NKJV).

Let's open with an intriguing and rather sobering allegory...

The Modern Metal Image – An Allegory

“Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.” – Deuteronomy 27:15

The nineteenth century heralded the triumphal entry of the prototype metal image and the people hailed “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”. The god of this world sent out his creeds across his territory – the airwaves – and into every home across the land. The message of the Nazarene was swapped for the Nazi regime in the 1930s and the enemy of the Living God rejoiced at what destruction he was able to accomplish with this modest molten thing.

By the middle of the twentieth century, the metal image was given a face, as well as speech, and was set up in the corner of every living room. The gods of the metal image were consulted several times a day by family members and the image, known as the ‘television set’, was keenly polished and cared for.

This new and upgraded metal image was at first small and fairly unassuming, complementing daily life rather than intruding upon it. But by the 1960s it had gained traction with a generation: having great influence over the actions and ethics of the youth, who saw less need for outdated Christian doctrines and more desire for pleasure. The metal image declared the glory of the god of this world and day after day it poured forth speech of all kinds of debauchery, drunkenness, gluttony, witchcraft, sorcery, orgies, fornication, promiscuity ... Sodom and Gomorrah would have loved it.

The nations continued to conspire and the peoples plotted in vain. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers took counsel together, against the LORD and against his Anointed – and the metal image was their prime vehicle. The LORD God looked down from Heaven on the children of man and was perplexed and dismayed at what He saw. He held them in derision.

As the decades went on, the metal image became a bigger and much more prominent feature in everyday life. It was happy to offer relief from the strains of life, information, entertainment and delight. Like a kind of philanthropic big brother to both families and singles, in exchange for just a pinch of incense. It was a fair swap and it reassured Christians that it could happily coexist with their God without interference.

Satan continued his roam across the world and largely passed over all who had faithfully erected their metal image black box altars in their homes and were seen bowing down to them several times a day at least. There were a few who sought to get rid of the metal image, suspecting that it had a grip on them that was not altogether healthy and in their best interests, but they were maligned, even by Christians, as being ‘out of touch with reality’.

By the end of the twentieth century, the metal image had gained two metal allies – the personal computer and the smartphone. These allowed people to really deepen their faith in the god of the metal image and their daily spiritual practices. The fuzzy airwaves from the prince of the power of the air caused much static to hinder the voice of the Holy Spirit in the Christian’s life and served to resist the prayers of the saints, much like a prince of Persia.

Strangely, the Christians did not seem to grasp that the god of this world had instituted all this and that they were willingly inviting him into their homes each day. The occultists in high places delighted in the image’s powers of deception and control of the masses by its veritable and captivating fare. Satan’s end-times masterstroke, if he did say so himself.

Hedonism, humanism, scientism, pragmatism and collectivism took precedent over truth, faith, depth of enquiry and individual critical thought. Everyone was becoming united under a banner of groupthink and falsehood, led by metal image. By 2019, all but a few people had come to depend on their metal images for comfort, social life and communication. Practically all of their thinking on worldview issues (in fact, nearly all other issues too) was able to be done for them. No longer did people have to spend time weighing up how to best live their lives and what action they wished to take, it was conveniently outsourced to the image, for everyone's good. The stage was set ...

In the year 2020, the metal image announced a worldwide plague.

The people became afraid and confused and wondered what to do. There was apparently a virus that was sweeping the nations. You couldn't see it – there was no one dying in the streets, people looked normal, life looked normal, after all illnesses had been a part of human life since the beginning of creation, but they were warned not to be under any illusions; this was deadly and a grave threat to all of humanity. What to do? Thankfully the benevolent metal image issued decrees and mandates that would let the people know what to believe, how to act and prescribe the reasonable and rational solution.

The threefold pronouncement was made – the metal image's antidote to the heinous plague: fear, compliance and absurdity. The people should fear death, fear governments (they knew best, don't dare question) and most of all, fear other people. Each person was now deemed to be a plague bearer and each other person was to fear them as such and stay as far away as possible, for the good of everyone.

The people should comply – with any and all mandates given by the authorities. Stay at home. Close businesses. Open businesses for a month then close them again. Close Churches. Close schools. No travelling. Quarantine both the sick and healthy. The message was clear – whatever the governments say, the people should obey. Some would muse that it seemed a little heavy-handed and one-sided but you have to understand, it was all in the name of keeping everyone safe. And the Christians would open their Bibles to Paul's letter to the Romans, find verse one of chapter 13 and be reassured that this was all good and right.

The people should embrace absurdity – they were to cover their faces with an old ragged cloth or two, or three – one of the more prominent sacrificial shackles, denoting allegiance. Avoid all family members for months. Don't hug grandchildren. Let the government know every time they entered a new place. Stick a virus test swab up their nose, regularly – that even the inventor said was ineffective, but no matter, a positive result is a positive result: no questions, they were to quarantine themselves, despite how well they felt. They were to remember that it was illegal and dangerous to sit and have a coffee with a friend in a park but totally fine and safe to do an indoor group gym class. They began to realise that it was necessary to give up living in order to protect life. They kept in mind that no one was doing these things for themselves – that would be selfish and damnable – instead, it was all for the good of others. They let the governments inject them with a rushed and experimental wonder drug containing all sorts of known toxins and new technologies but unknown long-term effects. The fact that the main philanthropist behind much of this was actively championing population control seemed to be a minor and inconsequential point. Absurdity was the new normal. They could almost be encouraged to champion the wise words of an old prophet: War is Peace, Freedom is Slavery and Ignorance is Strength. This was beginning to make real sense in 2020.

The bottom line was clear: So long as one was not overly concerned with truth, one's existence could assume an unreflective contentment. And if it wasn't for the metal image, people would not have known all these things and they wondered just what kind of devastation the plague would have caused to health, families, jobs, the economy, life, liberty and Church, had it not been around.

The metal image continued to preach and repeat its sermons with great fervour and with the help of its multitude of priests and elders all across the world and in every language. It tantalised the people's senses in multimedia technicolour. Graphs and tickers and news anchors repeated the creeds of the message that everyone needed to hear and heed. Billions were captivated.

Now, all this said, there were more than a few who questioned the novel commandments but unless their ideas made it onto the altar of the metal image, they were dismissed as strange fire; unacceptable worship and heresy. The people did not want to arouse the anger of the capricious gods of the metal image, so they continued to reverently obey.

Those Christians who refused to bow to the metal image were thought of as disruptive. After all, the gracious metal image gods had let them keep their Churches (albeit modified and prescribed, but that wasn't seen as a big deal) and had also given them their own metal image online services by which to serve their God. They could have the best of both worlds and both gods (where the metal image could keep an eye on them and later prescribe and censor the content), so what an earth was their problem? Pah! They clearly needed a re-read of Romans 13. These ungrateful, ungracious, uncompromising radicals. They needed to be dealt with, and the metal image god had made provisions for that.

There were health service evangelists (namely doctors and nurses) stationed in prominent positions in Churches, who ensured ongoing and unified ecclesiastical allegiance. Any Christian who dared to debate the metal image's decrees were sharply asked if they actually cared about people's lives at all? These cold and heartless folk clearly didn't get it, or so it was said.

It was a sad reality that even those who had been set free from the bondage of evil, sin and death and had a relationship with the loving and Living God, bowed down before the metal image, along with the pagans. There was not much distinguishable difference between the two groups.

Satan had not taken away Bibles yet: There was no need since there was no real threat, as Christians preferred to consult and make offerings to the metal image gods many times a day instead. Yes, the Christians still had their Bibles – lots of them – but they did not much care for them like they really ought to have. They decided in their hearts that there must be an error or at least an exception to what the scriptures said around gathering for worship, singing in the congregation and living in freedom and without fear; since the metal image, which had been such a familiar family friend for so many years, told them differently. After all, the gods of safety, pragmatism, scientism and collectivism and their zealous evangelists, were all in agreement and the people seemed to think it was all quite judicious.

A full year after the metal image pronounced the plague, Christians had still forfeited their weapons of warfare in a one-sided armistice: Corporate prayer gatherings were gone, or remote and lacklustre. Hymns of praise in the congregation were shut up or quietly apologetic. Anointing to break yokes and laying on of hands was nowhere to be seen. The Lord's Supper to remember the body and blood of Jesus availed for each believer was suspended or reduced to a 50% version – now the wine that represents the blood that brings life, could bring death. Public evangelism disappeared.

A little light in the darkness ... the need of the hour and the technology available enabled astute believers from around the world to convene and repent in prayer together. The metal image gods were not happy about this illegitimate use of their altar, but it was waived for a time as minor collateral damage. The Living God heard and thought differently.

Meanwhile, the god of this world advanced his army with great force and urgency: Government edicts, unjust laws, snappy 3-pronged newspeak soundbites, emotive psy-ops and magical sleight of hand reports of death tolls. It was all quite a spectacle and the whole world continued to follow and marvel.

By 2021, the metal image had firmly persuaded the people that they should embrace Satan's new pharmakeia. Like all good drug dealers worth their salt, the image showed people how life would be so much better when they rolled up their sleeve and received an intravenous hit of a magical but unknown substance that would allow them to escape from the hard truths of reality ... and that one hit was never going to be enough. Where did it come from? What's in it? Why are we being offered it and so quickly? There was no need to worry – this was the new saviour of the world to deliver them from the humdrum, burdens, frustrations and anxieties of everyday plague and lockdown life since 2020.

Any reports of adverse reactions, overdose, and pure and simple death from poisoning did not make it onto the news report altar, naturally, although there were many. And as the programme rolled out, in accordance with the affable technocrat eugenicists (key high priests of the metal image god), this new witches' brew began to include chips and bots that wowed the crowd, mostly by way of capturing the last of their mind and freewill that the metal image had not yet accrued. Just like Huxley's soma, it had raised a quite impenetrable wall between the actual universe and their minds.

And so it came to be that, like the five wanting virgins, there was almost a full complement of slumbering bodies in (online) Churches. The unregenerate were content as there was nothing required of them to claim membership to the community club of Jesus. And even many of those with oil in their lamp were in a spiritual stupor, cosily preferring their Egyptian cotton bedsheets to the harsh winds of discipleship. In fact, their God seemed quite distant to them and pretty silent on all of this stuff that the metal image was so vocal about ... So, what else was there to do but settle down, build houses, plant vineyards and sleep it all off?

They supposed that their God must not have really meant what He said when He told them that they should expect to suffer, even die for their faith: Those hot-tempered men of old with ruffled feathers must have made much ado about nothing over the things of Christ and His holiness. And so, their stories of martyrdom and patient endurance under persecution were looked upon fondly and compassionately as the stuff of cute myth.

The resolution of the matter was this: It was much better to be on the right side of the metal image god, since it seemed so much more relevant to daily life and curried so much favour with the pagans. Besides, what witness would it be if Christians recklessly disregarded the hymns of fear and incense of safety in favour of joy, hope and freedom? No, they saw that they must be just like the world in order to win the world ... but that they'd leave the winning to when the metal image allowed them to go out again.

Now, I won't spoil the rest of the story for you, you'll have to see for yourself how it all pans out in the last days before Christ returns ... I wouldn't want to turn this unsettling fable into an outright horror story. Let's just say that the technocratic trinity – the metal image god and its two allies – went on to develop a supremely sophisticated fantasyland of stealth terror and death, that the world had already obtained its ticket to, from racking up decades of entertainment loyalty points. Multi-faith Churches were standard, holographs, aliens, more outbreaks, a Jesus here, a Jesus there! Quite wondrous ... And I won't even mention that son of perdition. True and committed followers of Jesus had to resolve to 'live not by lies' (as Solzhenitsyn once said) and against all odds and norms. It was near impossible because of the all-pervading magnitude of the metal image deception – but it could be done, by the grace of the Living God. It was there that the beauty of sweet communion with Christ was found.

One has to reflect though on how things might have been quite different, had the Christians smashed their metal images, or not brought them into their homes at all. What if they had asked the Living God in all earnestness to deliver them from the shackles of lies and comfort and cowardice? What if, when the metal image first announced the plague and orders to shut Churches, they unwaveringly followed Christ and His commands instead, saying "We must obey God rather than men"? What if the Christians resolved to shine more brightly with their open Churches in the dark and closed world? How would things have looked if they'd spent more time thinking and praying about lost souls on their way to hell and doing evangelism, rather than hand sanitisers and safety risk assessment reports? If they had discussed and delved into what Romans 13 actually meant and laboured in prayer for even a third of the time that they spent consuming newspeak and metal image box sets? Remember, Elijah was a man just like us.

Anyway, as I write this, from the largest correction centre that the world has ever known and with great risk to my life, since pens and notebooks are now deemed the most dangerous of weapons, my deepest wish is this: To be able to wind the clock back to early 2020 and plead with the Christians to resist the lies of the god of the metal image, to make a stand for Christ and His worship and be willing to be counted worthy to suffer for Him – and to know the great joy and intimacy with our Saviour as a result of costly and wholehearted obedience ... before it's too late.

“What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?” – Habakkuk 2:18

“Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness’ sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.” – Matthew 5:10-12

Part 1: The Current Problem & Context (Romans 13:1–7)

CHAPTER ONE

Cold, Hard Covid Facts and Uncovering Initial Insights

Let's open this chapter with 20 pithy facts around all things Covid. They are things that are undisputable, but mostly hidden or censored by mainstream and social media.

#1 PCR Tests do not work – they do not accurately detect any virus.
(See full details and evidence in Chapter 3.)

PCR tests are expressly not approved for diagnostic purposes – as is correctly noted on official literature coming with these tests<sup>3</sup>, and as the inventor of the PCR test, Kary Mullis, has repeatedly emphasised. Instead, they're simply incapable of diagnosing any disease.

“...if a person gets a ‘positive’ PCR test result at a cycle threshold (Ct) of 35 or higher (as applied in most US labs and many European labs), the chance that the person is infectious is less than 3%. The chance that the person received a ‘false positive’ result is 97% or higher.” – Swiss Policy Research<sup>4</sup>

#2 Masks do not work – they don’t stop virus particles but are dangerous to health. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 3.)

An under-reported CDC study, which surveyed symptomatic Covid 19 patients, found that 70.6% of Covid patients reported ‘always’ wearing a mask and 14.4% say they ‘often’ wear a mask<sup>5</sup>. That means a whopping 85% of infected Covid patients are habitual mask wearers. Only 3.9% of those infected said they ‘never’ wear a face covering.

“Masks have been shown to inhibit breathing and increase the chance of infection. Reports coming from my colleagues all over the world are suggesting that the bacterial pneumonias are on the rise, as a result of moisture collecting in face masks.” – Dr James Meehan<sup>6</sup>

“By all means people can wear masks – or not wear masks. Policy can make the decision, but what they can’t do is say that it’s an evidence-based decision.” – Dr Carl Heneghan<sup>7</sup>, Professor of Evidence-Based Medicine, University of Oxford.

#3 Lockdowns do not work – they do not inhibit virus transmission, but do cause major devastation to relationships, work, health and the economy. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 3.)

Amongst many others, Pandemics Data and Analytics (PANDA) have proved that not only do lockdowns not work but they contradict a century of pre-Covid science<sup>8</sup> and are much deadlier than the Covid 19 virus in their negative impact on all areas of life and society.

#4 Suicide, divorce rates and mental health decline have spiked. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 3.)

By April 2020, the interest in divorce had already increased by 34% in USA<sup>9</sup> and divorce rates have continued to show a marked increase. Studies show that Covid is associated elevated with social isolation, distress, anxiety, fear of contagion, depression and insomnia<sup>10</sup> in the general population and among healthcare professionals. This can lead to the development or exacerbation of depressive, anxiety, substance use and other psychiatric disorders in vulnerable populations. Stress-related psychiatric conditions, including mood and substance use disorders, are associated with suicidal behaviour. It has been estimated that the Covid crisis is increasing suicide rates significantly<sup>11</sup>.

#5 Abortions by post were instituted by health services under Covid. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 5.)

The UK, USA and other locations have made abortions at home by pill sent in the mail<sup>12</sup> available, billed as “a safe and legal way to end a pregnancy at an early gestation without needing to attend a clinic for treatment.” Abortion clinics remained open as ‘essential services’ all through lockdowns, while Churches shut in order to ‘save the national health services and hospitals’.

#6 Children are being institutionally traumatised. (See full details and evidence in Chapters 3 and 4.)

Return to school is with many traumatic restrictions<sup>13</sup> – children are given invasive and ineffective Covid tests weekly, forced to wear masks and with a big push for vaccination.

#7 Huge legal cases of Covid crimes against humanity are being brought right now across the world. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 3.)

A team of over 1,000 lawyers and over 10,000 medical experts are mounting legal proceedings against the CDC, WHO & the Davos Group for crimes against humanity. German defence lawyer, Dr Reiner Fuellmich, is leading the German Corona Investigative Committee, which is bringing crimes against humanity charges against the world’s lockdown and other Covid mandates promoters<sup>14</sup> – using the Nuremberg Code. Many other legal cases are being brought too, and have won, as in Austria, where the courts rules that PCR tests are not suitable for Covid 19 diagnosis and that lockdowns have no legal basis<sup>15</sup>.

#8 Many Churches have closed for long periods under lockdown, shut down completely, or are compromised in their worship. (See full details and evidence in Chapters 3 and 4.)

Across the world, established denominational Churches have closed their buildings and conducted their services online. Where they are open, most have continued to refrain from congregational singing, observing the Lord's Supper, baptisms, fellowship meals, in-person prayer meetings, Bible studies, Gospel outreach and continue to enforce social distancing and masks. Many have taken the stance of governments, that opening back up 'largely depends on vaccine rollout'.

#9 Pastors have been jailed for opening their Churches and given astronomical fines. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 3 and 5.)

Pastors such as James Coates from Alberta, Canada have been jailed<sup>16</sup> for continuing to open their Churches when ineffective and heavy-handed lockdowns have been instituted. Many others have been issued with very heavy fines and threats of imprisonment, such as Pastor Jacob Reaume at Trinity Bible Chapel in Ontario, Canada. TBC has been issued with $40 million of fines<sup>17</sup> (yes, forty million), including $83,000 given for a single service, which cannot be waived, removed, or appealed.

#10 The Covid 'vaccine' is an experimental, untested 'gene tampering injection'. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 4.)

Millions of people have taken a rushed, new injectable technology which has only been approved for emergency use and is funded by known eugenicists and medical companies who have been granted complete freedom from any liability. Many expert medical professionals have expressed grave concern over these 'gene therapy shots' and there are worrying reports of many serious side effects and deaths – all of which are being heavily censored.

#11 Vaccine ‘passports’ are enforcing a two-tier society of medical segregation and complete loss of liberty. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 4.)

Starting in Israel in February 2021 and sweeping across the world, vaccine passports were introduced to verify and distinguish between those who have received the experimental Covid injections from those who have not. The vaccinated class is granted permission to re-enter society and enjoy ‘privileges’ such as air travel, access to sporting events, theatres, restaurants. Even the ability to work in employment, shop for food and attend Church have been restricted to those with a vaccine pass in many places. This is complete medical segregation, marginalising the ‘unvaccinated’ from all aspects of society. If governments have their way, this will seal the deal for a complete totalitarian regime across the world. IBM, who created the Nazi Germany concentration camp punch cards, is a leader in this initiative, with its ‘Digital Health Pass’<sup>18</sup>, tethering vaccine records to a blockchain digital wallet for employers and businesses.

Author of ‘The End of America’, Naomi Wolf, along with many others, has repeatedly warned, “I cannot say this forcefully enough: This is literally the end of human liberty in the West if this plan unfolds as planned.”<sup>19</sup>

#12 Clergy Response Teams (CRTs) have been used to spread Covid and vaccine propaganda within Churches and to quell any questioning or dissent. (See full details and evidence in Chapters 4 and 10.)

Governments have been fervently recruiting ‘Clergy Response Teams’ and ‘Places of Worship Task Forces’<sup>20</sup> to massage the views of Christians and Churchgoers, to persuade them that not only is the experimental Covid pseudo-vaccine ‘safe and effective’ but that taking it is the most loving, Christlike thing to do. It is not.

#13 Draconian legislation has been passed to remove liability of vaccine manufacturers and grant governments authoritarian powers. (See full details and evidence in Chapters 4 and 5.)

The USA Public Readiness and Emergency Preparedness (PREP) Act<sup>21</sup> of 2005 was updated in 2020 to provide complete immunity from liability to vaccine manufacturers and administrators. This is just one example of complete indemnity given across the world to medical companies and professionals – so there is zero recourse for any harm done by the experimental Covid vaccine.

In March 2020, Denmark’s parliament unanimously passed an emergency coronavirus law<sup>22</sup> and the UK passed its Coronavirus Act<sup>23</sup>, both of which gives health authorities powers to force testing, treatment and quarantine with the backing of the police. Emmanuel Macron’s ‘Global Security Bill’<sup>24</sup> was passed in 2020, granting dictatorial provisions to governments akin to the 1933 Nazi Enabling Act, which ‘enabled’ Hitler’s government

#14 The ‘Great Reset’ technocracy is being forced upon us by the World Economic Forum (WEF). (See full details and evidence in Chapter 10.)

Led by Klaus Schwab, the unelected WEF Great Reset<sup>25</sup> movement is rolling out a detailed grand plan for a cashless, one world currency and one world order. It’s socialism repackaged and boosted. In a 2020 short video, the WEF gave eight bold and coercive predictions for 2030, which includes the surrender of the United States to the United Nations, as well as a major economic crash.

#15 Governments want to implant biosensors in everyone, hook up humanity to the Internet of Things and roll out a global social credit system. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 4.)

The political left has united with Big Tech to implement a social credit model like the one rolled out in China in 2020, openly operational in Canada in April 2021<sup>26</sup>. This is being facilitated with the big push for vaccine passports, implantable biosensor nanochips, blockchain and 5G. With complete surveillance of all of society, income and releasing payments to civilians is dependent on complying with the authoritarian governments’ mandates. In April 2021, the Pentagon’s military research lab, DARPA revealed its implantable biosensor<sup>27</sup> to ‘detect Covid 19’.

#16 The USA Equality Act, passed during Covid, erases God-given gender distinctions from law. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 5.)

The Equality Act, passed in February 2021<sup>28</sup>, enforces transgender rights and removes religious freedoms with serious Gospel implications. This legislation has been called the most invasive threat to religious liberty ever passed in America because of its mandating universal liberal ‘understandings’ of sexual orientation and gender identity for all aspects of society. Anyone who maintains a traditional understanding of human sexuality, gender identity, and marriage will be treated as one guilty of discrimination.

#17 Anti-Christian ‘conversion therapy’ bills are being passed to try to outlaw prayer and Gospel witness to certain groups. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 5.)

Legislation to ban ‘conversion therapy’ is being pushed in Canada<sup>29</sup> and the UK, with activists targeting Bible-believing Churches<sup>30</sup>. Conversion therapy means “a practice, treatment or service designed to change a person’s sexual orientation to heterosexual or gender identity to cis-gender, or to repress or reduce non-heterosexual attraction or sexual behaviour.” This would effectively outlaw Gospel freedom to pray and witness to gay and trans people, cutting across the ordinary work of Churches and could even affect Christian parenting.

#19 Church leaders are using Romans 13 verses 1-7 as a means of justifying their compliance with all the above lies and evil. (See full details and evidence in Chapter 2 and 5.)

The Church at large has justified its blanket submission to the Covid mandates with the Romans 13 passages<sup>32</sup> concerning how Christians should be subject to rulers and governments. This is an immature or wilfully ignorant perspective, not fully worked through and is a misinterpretation of the scriptures.

The Unfolding Deception

The events that have unfolded around the world since the start of 2020 have been mind boggling, fear inducing and have impacted every corner of life so massively that life ‘pre-coronavirus’ seems almost like a lifetime ago. To think we actually met freely and got close to each other, unafraid and unashamed; it feels like an age of innocence that’s lost forever. Of course, as Christians, we know that there is nothing innocent about us human beings. We are bound up in sin and we know that the whole of creation groans as we wait for the glorious appearing of our dear Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will put all things right and will usher us into glory with Him forevermore. When He comes to claim His Bride, there will be no more sin, no fear, no death, no deception and no bondage. That'll all be displaced by perfect holiness and we'll experience blissful life with our God for eternity. Hallelujah!

“And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him.” – Revelation 22:3

Yes, we wait for His appearing on that great Day. But in the meantime, we are here, now. We've been dealing with a virus and all the craziness and political power moves that have resulted from it (or so we're told). Whichever way you look at it or what you think of it all, there is one thing that is for certain – our lives have changed forever. As an MIT Technology Review article<sup>33</sup> brazenly stated right back in March 2020 – ‘we’re not going back to normal’.

The magnitude of what has happened and the rate at which it's all developed could be predicted by few. But it could be predicted by those who have eyes to see and ears to hear and have been watching the higher political arena, closely, for a good while before 2020. I've had many discussions with people over the past two decades on exactly what we are seeing before our eyes now in the name of a pandemic. How? We'll get into that. But, most significantly, having access to the throne room of Heaven to ask my Father for wisdom and discernment on these matters and in reading the signs of the times we are living in (as do you, of course, if you're a follower of Jesus). The evidence is there for all to see, if only we would look. If we ask our Father for eyes to see and the humility to accept the truth and then the boldness to act upon what He reveals, I believe our discernment and insight will grow hugely. But if we're not focused on truth or are not prepared to act upon it, then the news media will resonate much more with us and we'll desire the comfort of the world and the mainstream crowd.

This book is not full of end times speculation and conjecture or over-hyped fear mongering, though there is discussion of where this is heading. I have rooted it in the facts of both the past and what's happening right now and have used primary source materials and evidence where possible – getting information ‘straight from the horse’s mouth’ so to speak, where it’s available. My aim is to show the truth that can be seen, the ramifications of what’s going on in our world and the implications for the body of Christ. There are suggestions for what we can do moving forward, to navigate through these troubling times in a Biblical and righteous way.

My number one concern is that we worship our LORD Jesus in spirit and truth and that He receives the glory due to Him, by His Bride, the true Church, undeceived and unobstructed by secular opinion and the anti-worship, anti-Gospel, anti-Christ rules imposed upon our Church family fellowship by the state.

In His sermon on the mount, Jesus says: “Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness’ sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 5:10) Interestingly, He does not say ‘persecuted for sharing the Gospel’ or ‘persecuted by coronavirus regulations’. No, we are persecuted for righteousness: doing good. Doing the God-ordained right and worshipful things in the face of evil and opposition. Persecution therefore comes when we make a concerted stand in the face of wrong. Judgement and persecution are two very different things. The LORD could well be judging His Church by sending us into a kind of exile during lockdowns and forced isolation, or He could be testing us to see whether we’ll stand and faithfully obey Him instead and keep on gathering for worship, with the possibility of incurring persecution as a result, as some pastors and Churches are facing right now. Whichever way we look at it, we’re on a spiritual battlefield and there are obstacles and landmines that we need to navigate around. However, if we’re not prepared to repent, turn from and intercede for secular humanism, lukewarmness, abortion and other types of bloodshed and idolatry, then we should expect God’s judgement. The Body of Christ is the gatekeeper of truth and only we can intercede for the ungodliness and sin of the world around us.

We also need to be prepared for persecution and to see things clearly and as they really are and to gird our loins to stand up for our faith in Christ. The true Christ-follower is sold out for Him and all He's done for us and we're committed to evangelising the lost world, to see souls saved, and living in holiness. Let's keep that the main focus and walk daily with our LORD, humbly and boldly, ready to face what's ahead. I pray the LORD strengthens and blesses you in doing this.

How Could Covid 19 Be Deception?

I have found that there are two main objections people give to the notion that any or all of the mandates rolled out under Covid 19 and beyond are deceptive or tyrannical.

The first objection is that any speak of this is merely 'conspiracy theories', to which I would say that the term 'conspiracy theory' has been weaponised and is clearly being used towards anyone who seeks to use discernment and apply a level of critical thinking to what's going on. This is evidenced by the heavy suppression, censorship and immediate removal of information, as well as a lack of any meaningful official discussion or argument against masks, vaccines and the like. Actually, a 'conspiracy theorist' is simply someone who questions the statements and motives of known liars. More importantly, the Bible is absolutely full of real conspiracies, so we should 100% expect them to be in action in our world right now. Jesus' crucifixion – divinely ordained and the most glorious event in history – was also a human conspiracy. We have to ask, is the beast system spoken of in Revelation that rises with a False Prophet and Antichrist at the helm, and beguiles the whole world, a conspiracy? If not and Scripture prophecy is true, then how can it be implemented by our benevolent world leaders?

I have also heard people say that conspiracy theories appeal to one's pride – "I know something that others don't know" – to try and trump or silence any talk of this nature. To which I would say that it only takes time, effort, focus and courage in doing some discerning research to know and prove the truth, guided by the Spirit and in prayer. It's not easy or pleasant but it's there for all to see ... at least for the moment while we still have some degree of freedom of information over the internet. However, even this is being rapidly eroded. It is not pride to genuinely want to help people see that something isn't right with the world and warn them of dangers ahead; it's a godly concern.

The second objection people have to the notion that the Covid rules are deceptive and tyrannical is that there is no way that the powers that be could have orchestrated all of this in a matter of weeks or months, since the end of 2019 and into early 2020, when lockdowns were first ordered. This is absolutely correct – there is no way it could have been masterminded so quickly. Rather, it has taken decades, centuries, even millennia of collusion and planning. What we are seeing now is moving towards the full culmination of the stealth atrocities and complete control that Satan is instituting via 'Mystery Babylon', spoken about in the Book of Revelation and has been at work since his first attempt through Nimrod building the Tower of Babel in Genesis.

Let me state an obvious truth: Deception is, well, deceptive. Deception is something insidiously malignant working upon our highest, even purest desires to enslave us to corruption – to bend all that is good to tyranny. Lies are sometimes subtle and sometimes so big and bold that they couldn't possibly be lies, could they? Our spiritual adversary uses both. He's a master at it and we are told that the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. So, we should not be surprised at deception, but also not fearful; Our great LORD Jesus has overcome the powers of darkness, sin and death through His life, death, resurrection and ascension, and we know how this story ends, don't we? Hallelujah!

Theologian, Howard Nolan<sup>34</sup>, writes: “Evil does not parade its true nature and ramifications in a fashion that will leave us appalled and angered. It will work softly, methodically, appealing to our sense that it is best to tolerate and co-exist with what is not deemed or perceived as an immediate threat to us. It draws alongside, and then, requesting what is clearly good or sensible for us, gradually encroaches upon what it should not have until it erodes away our actual freedom by luring us with something it defines as better than what we had, until we are entirely ensnared by its pervasive systems and choked by the poison of its ideals, defined as being ‘for the best’.”

George Orwell’s final warning before he died, referring to his infamous book which prophesies a totalitarian state, ‘1984’, was “Don’t let it happen; it depends upon you”. It does, indeed, depend upon us – as believers with the wisdom and mind of Christ. We need to recognise what’s going on under the guise of a pandemic and be shrewd but also gentle with the truth of what we see, as our LORD commands us. If you haven’t read or watched the film ‘1984’, spend 7:34 minutes watching a helpful and interesting summary now.<sup>35</sup>

“Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, “Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things will be fulfilled?” And Jesus, answering them, began to say: “Take heed that no one deceives you. For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and will deceive many. But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled; for such things must happen, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of sorrows. “But watch out

Romans 13 and Covid 19 – Knowledge, Warnings and Encouragement for the Church and World

by J.L. Fuller

This unique, timely book gives a comprehensive analysis and exposure of the deceptive dangers and errors entering the Church under Coronavirus mandates ... and a clear, Biblical roadmap out of it.

‘Romans 13 and Covid 19’ is for Pastors, Church leaders, disciples of Jesus Christ and anyone who is concerned by what’s being imposed on the Body of Christ and world at large by our Governments, as a result of the Covid crisis.

The book examines Biblical principles on the scope and limits of civil authority, looking at examples from both the current situation and the past (namely the misuse of Romans 13 in 1930s Germany to quell resistance to Hitler). It surveys the key aspects and implications of the Covid directives – from the medical mandates, lockdowns and gene therapy rollout, to systematic State propaganda and the ‘Great Reset’. You’ll find much-needed knowledge and wisdom about not only what’s going on now but also the wider, one-world technocratic agenda at play and where it’s headed: Equipping you with all you need to know to accurately understand the times and obey Jesus’ command in Matthew 24:4 to “Take heed that no one deceives you”, as well as to watch and pray, wake up from sleep, cast off the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light.

Unlike the news media and official guidance, this book is free of hype, spin and Covid fear-mongering. Whilst it's eye-opening and shocking, it will give you encouragement and practical guidance for living fully and fearlessly and in the joy of a closer walk with God – especially as the squeeze on the Western Church gets tighter, world deception increases and Jesus' return draws nearer.

Reviews

“In more than 25 years of Christian leadership, I have not read a book which sets out the truths behind the headlines in such a fearless and relevant way for the times we now live in. This is essential reading for every Christian. The facts will shake you to the core; they did me, but they are vital for us to know, so that we can effectively pray God's Kingdom into a world where hope is fast disappearing.”

– Ian Dodgson, Pastor, UK

“Romans 13 and Covid-19 courageously and meticulously presents much-needed light to a very darkened world. I heartily recommend this book as a thoroughly documented ‘must-read’ for all Christians.”

– Sam Adams, Pastor, US

“Reading this is akin to reserving for yourself and your loved ones the best seats in the lifeboat just before the Titanic hits the iceberg.”

– Jonathan Stuart-Brown, LLB, Author

“In an age of spin, fake news, lies, propaganda and manipulation by media and governments alike, it is refreshing to find an author who clearly questions the current given narrative of Covid, along with the concomitant reaction of the Church in general. This is a must-read for all Berean Christians, who would claim to be men and women of Issachar, able to read the signs of the times.”

– Ruth Campbell, Retired Teacher

Further Resources

“‘Romans 13 and Covid 19’ will enlighten and shock you in equal measure. It is one of the most timely and relevant books published in the advent of Covid, speaking directly into the situation we all find ourselves in. Make no mistake, this book will open your eyes but also equip you to be the Church of tomorrow in an ever-changing world that may never go back to ‘normal’ again. The only question I ask is ‘are you ready for it?’”
